

Leela Sathvika Vankadaru

Software Developer | Final Year CSE Student

I am a Computer Science & Engineering Student at the moment. I have a strong passion for software development and problem-solving. I have real-time experience in developing web-apps and native applications. I'm interested in learning and experimenting with technology on a daily basis. My aspiration is to be a full - fledged software developer with notable skills. I am a terrific team member and I like working in groups.
